

DATAHAWKS

DataHawks organises, analyses and monetises your data.

We do this by accessing your relevant data. This may be done by using existing log-ins provided by you, being added as a user to a platform you are already using in your company's name, or via an API.

Relevant data includes but is not limited to; customer data, sales data and anonymous data including website analytics.

This data is used for analysis only, by employees or agents of We Are Data Hawks Ltd.

Data downloaded or copied from its source is held in a secure environment during collation, cleaning and analysis. It is held securely for the length of the relationship between DataHawks & the client. The copied data is securely deleted afterwards, leaving the original data intact.

If you have any questions please get in touch at victoria@wearedatahawks.com